The Penang Art Gallery was officially opened in 1883 and was presented to the public of Penang by the Penang State Government. Located nearby is an ornate fountain which was built when Captain Francis Light first settled on Penang Island. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The 60-foot clock tower, commissioned in 1895, is one of the most prominent landmarks in George Town. Constructed by the Penang Government, it features a clock movement from Switzerland and is considered a fine example of colonial architecture.

The Church was established by Father M. de Azevedo in 1820 and was designed in the Gothic Revival style with a pointed arch and twin minarets and domes. It is one of the oldest churches in Penang and is dedicated to the Virgin Mary. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The lions symbolise the two main colonial powers. The British lion, which is added to the Straits Chinese Lion Temple, is considered a fine example of the Straits Chinese architecture.

This old mansion, built in 1895, was restored in 1995. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The Penang Art Gallery was officially opened in 1883 and was presented to the public of Penang by the Penang State Government. Located nearby is an ornate fountain which was built when Captain Francis Light first settled on Penang Island. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The Penang Art Gallery was officially opened in 1883 and was presented to the public of Penang by the Penang State Government. Located nearby is an ornate fountain which was built when Captain Francis Light first settled on Penang Island. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The Penang Art Gallery was officially opened in 1883 and was presented to the public of Penang by the Penang State Government. Located nearby is an ornate fountain which was built when Captain Francis Light first settled on Penang Island. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.

The Penang Art Gallery was officially opened in 1883 and was presented to the public of Penang by the Penang State Government. Located nearby is an ornate fountain which was built when Captain Francis Light first settled on Penang Island. Visiting hours are 9am - 5.30pm daily, closed on Tuesday.