Reservations

Reservations are not compulsory on most German trains. If you want to have a good seat guaranteed, please use a DB ticket machine at the station or book your reservation online at www.bahn.com or in the DB Navigator App.

- Travel with this Pass is subject to the CIV ("Uniform rules concerning the contract for international carriage of passengers and luggage by rail"). The transport will be carried out according to Germany's existing public regulations and DB's general and specific transportation regulations. These regulations can be obtained by applying to the carrier in question.
- The German Rail Pass may only be used by travellers residing permanently outside of Europe, Turkey and the Russian Federation.
- The German Rail Pass is strictly personal, non-transferable and only valid together with a passport or official identity card. It is valid throughout Germany in trains operated by DB (Deutsche Bahn – German Railway), including the stations Salzburg (Austria) and Basel Bad Bf (Switzerland) and also including the domestic IC Bus services of DB. Travel is also possible on selected routes in Europe. For the validity of the German Rail Pass on trains operated by other carriers than DB please refer to www.diebefoerderer.de.
- All German Rail Passes FLEXI entitle the holder to a specified number of travel days within a period of 1 month. All German Rail Pass CONSECUTIVE entitle the holder to a consecutive period of travel days. Per adult 2 children from 6 to 11 years of age can travel for free. Children from 6 to 11 years travelling alone have to be in possession of a German Rail Youth Pass.
- The German Rail Twin Pass is valid for two passengers travelling together at all times. Only one Pass is issued. The German Rail Youth Pass is exclusively available for 2nd class.
- The passenger chooses the first and last day of travel and this must be inserted by the Issuing Office or by a DB Ticket Office before the passenger starts with the first trip. A ticket inspector may also validate the Pass when the holder arrives in Germany on a train from abroad. The passenger must not fill in the validity dates him/herself.
- Holders of a FLEXI Pass are free to choose the days of travel and must enter the travel day in the calendar box on the Pass with an unerasable ball-point pen before boarding the first train on that day.
- German Rail Pass holders are not granted access to DB Lounges.
- The passenger may not begin the first journey before 00h00 hours (0:00 a.m.) on the first day of validity. The last journey must be completed at latest by 24h00 hours (12:00 p.m.) of the last day of validity. The date and time taken into account are those stated in the official timetables for arrival at the destination station.
- Pass Holders can travel from midnight until midnight on the selected day. If the trip starts with a direct overnight train departing after 19h00 hours (7:00 p.m.), the next day's date must be entered; travel between 19h00 hours (7:00 p.m.) and 24h00 hours (12:00 p.m.) on the day of departure is then included (not valid if the first travel day is the first day of validity).
- The Pass is not valid if it has been altered in any way or if dates are entered with a pencil.
- The German Rail Pass exempts the holder from paying a surcharge on German high speed and quality day trains, reservations are recommended. Reservations are mandatory on night trains. The German Rail Pass is not valid on DB Autozug (car carrying trains), chartered trains, private steam trains, narrow-gauge railways and museum railways.
- Pass holders must pay all supplements and reservation fees for seats, couchettes, berths, sleepers, registered luggage, meals and other services available on board the trains.
- For reimbursements of unused Passes 15% retention will be deducted.
- Passenger Rights Regulation: travellers who encounter during their trips with a German Rail Pass at least 3 times a delay of 60 minutes or more are entitled to a compensation. The compensation amount is 7,50 euros (1st class) and 5 euros (2nd class) per delay. Compensation claims have to be sent in to the following address:
