TRANSLATED ATTRACTIONS

Le Futuroscope has two FREE translation systems, depending on the attractions, which you can listen to using your own earphones.

One system is available via a downloadable smartphone app; the other is a device that you can borrow free of charge.

If you do not have your own earphones, you can purchase a pair, from the Translation headsets desk at the main entrance (price: 3 €).

Using your mobile phone

You can listen to the translations for attractions 1, 2 and 13 using the free Sennheiser Mobile-Connect app, which you can get from

Once you are in the attraction, connect to its wifi network, then open the MobileConnect app and select your language.

A simple and handy solution for outstanding sound quality!

Where can you use the app?

- 1 Chocs Cosmiques
- 2 La Vienne Dynamique
- 13 Kinémax

Using the Futuroscope translation headset

In attractions 10, 16, 19 and 21, use the device issued at one of the two visitor Information Desks.

- Switch the headset on
- Use  to select
- Place the earphones in your ears and adjust the volume as required.

Where can you use the headset?

-  10 La Forge aux Etoiles
-  16 KinéKid
-  19 Arthur, l'Aventure 4D
-  21 Le Monde de l'Invisible

Tips

Remember to switch off your headset at the end of each show. If you think the headset is not working properly or if your translation headset is out of batteries, ask a host or hostess in any attraction. Please return the headset as soon as you have finished visiting the attractions.

Please remember!

This receiver has been loaned free of charge but you are responsible for its safekeeping. Futuroscope may ask you to contribute towards the costs of repair if it is lost or damaged.

Please tell our teams if you have any problems with either of our translation systems! They are there to help.

The other attractions do not require translations!
