Day 2: Tsagaan Suvarga colorful mud cliffs

Your guide and driver will meet you at the hotel at 7.30 AM and start the tour to the Tsagaan Suvarga cliffs in the Gobi desert. The area is one of the most famous attractions in the Gobi Desert. We will hike 1-2 hrs down and up along the trails of the stupa-shaped colorful cliffs..

Accommodation: Tsagaan Suvraga Ger camp

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Gobi Gurban Saikhan Mountain National Park and hiking in Eagle Valley

The Gobi Gurban Saikhan means "Three beautiful mountains in the Gobi." The Gobi Gurban Saikhan Mountain is a beautiful national park, rich in wildlife and scenic places. Among them, Yoliin Am/Bearded Eagle Valley is one of the picturesque valleys accessible by car. After our vehicle brings us to a designated parking area, we will walk through the resplendent valley into the depths of a sheer rock canyon, which accepts no sunlight. Therefore, it has ice until the end of June. The hiking continues for 2.5 to 3 hours into the valley and back to the vehicle. Bearded Eagles, elusive wild sheep, and ibexes are indigenous to the valley.

Accommodation: Ger camp (all Ger accommodations are similar to Day 2)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Khongor Sand Dunes and two-humped camel riding

The journey will continue to Khongor, the tallest solid dunes. Upon reaching Khongor, visit a nomad family, ride two-humped camels, and climb one of the dunes. If you can climb one of the tallest dunes, spread the sand northwards against the wind to find out why locals call the dunes "Singing Sand." The Gobi Desert views are fantastic from the top of the dunes.

Accommodation: Ger camp (all Ger accommodations are similar to Day 2)

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day5 Khongor Sand Dunes
