

LIONAIR INCORPORATED HELICOPTER TOUR WAIVER

The following guidelines are known as the Helicopter Tour Guidelines, and are part of the Waiver and Release of Liability signed by the Participant.

- 1. EMBARKING/DISEMBARKING THE HELICOPTER. It is important that all passengers understand the pre-flight briefing. The instructions given during the briefing educate you on the procedures to follow during your helicopter experience and are designed to keep you safe at all times. Please follow these instructions for your own safety around helicopters.

- 2. PAY ATTENTION TO THE PRE-FLIGHT BRIEFING. Before you fly, it's important to know what is expected of you. The pilot and/or staff will tell you when and how to enter and exit the helicopter, they are there to ensure your safety but can only do so with your cooperation.

- 3. USE OF EQUIPMENTS.

- Use of Headsets, Lifevest, and other Helicopter equipments are implemented to ensure your safety, please use these equipments with proper care and courtesy for the next passengers.

Note. In the event of any damage to the equipments belonging to LIONAIR INCORPORATED, you will be liable to all losses and damages to the equipment during and after the rental period and the appraisal for any such loss or damage shall be based on the replacement of new equipment without any deduction for depreciation.

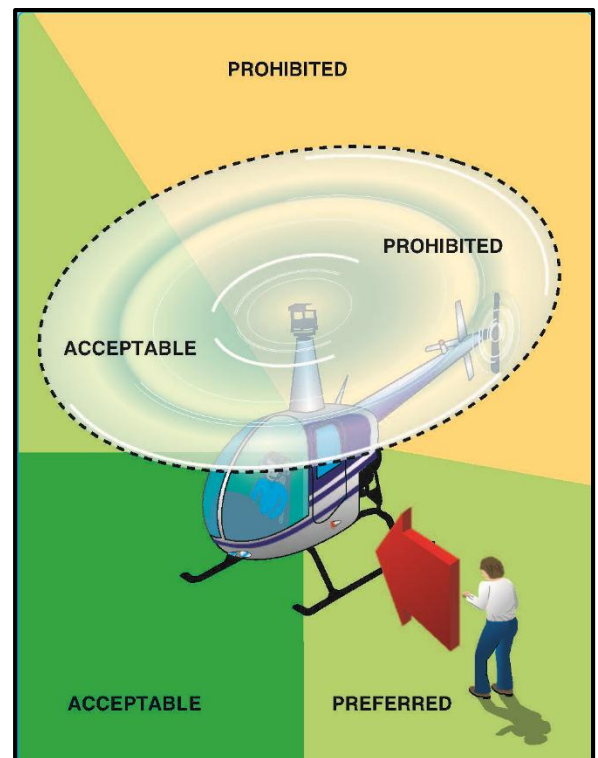

- 4. BEWARE OF THE ROTORS - DO NOT APPROACH FROM BEHIND.

- Wait for the crews' signal before moving toward the helicopter.
- Approach the helicopter from the front or sides only.
- Never approach the helicopter from the rear and stay in front of the rear doors at all times.
- Stand low in a crouch as you approach a helicopter on level ground that has its rotors turning

- 5. KEEP TRACK OF LIGHT AND LOOSE ITEMS.

- Securing your personal belongings is important.
- Lightweight items can blow away as you near the helicopter.
- Let an item go if it flies out of your hands. You could get hurt if you try to chase it.

Note: You are fully responsible for your own personal property brought onto the LIONAIR INCORPORATED's property before, during and after the Helicopter Tour. The Company does not provide security services for the protection of personal property

- 6. EXIT AND ENTER WITH SAFETY IN MIND.

- Always depart the helicopter in the same direction you entered it, from the front or side, and make sure it is in the safety zones described above.

- Remember NOT to wave your arms, jump, or lift anything over your head, and keep all loose personal items secure.
- Ensure that your safety belt is secure before takeoff.

7. WEATHER.

- For your safety and the best experience possible, we do not fly in high winds, thunderstorms, or conditions which produce low-visibility or may cause an unsafe environment.

8. LIMITATIONS.

- Intoxicated passengers will not be allowed to fly.
- Firearms, knives, sharp objects, weapons, compressed gases, explosives and flammable materials are not allowed on the property or inside the helicopter at any time.
- There is a strict 300 pound weight limit per seat and less than 560 pounds for all three passengers.
