

Bella

Meet Bella, a beautiful black cat with a long, graceful tail that waves with confidence. True to her name, she's as beautiful on the inside as she is on the outside. Bella is an affectionate kitty who loves chin scratches and gentle rubs, soaking up all the love you can give.

She's a cat who thrives in a home where she can have her own space and a human all to herself. If you're looking for a sweet, loving companion, Bella is ready to steal your heart!

Gladely

This is Gladely! When eye contact is made, she will tilt her head out of curiosity. Gladely has alternating paw colours and it's so cute and unique! She is always curious and always makes us laugh with her cute poses and antics!

She still needs time to trust us but we believe that once she does, she will be another lovely cat who will truly love you!

Mango

It's Mango season for us everyday! As a very affectionate and gentle cat, her love for head and chin scratches shows that she enjoys being around people. Mango is known to be a personal heater in our studio because of how much the kittens loves to sleep on her.

Mango's sweet temperament and affectionate nature will make you fall in love with her just like taking a bite out of a mango for the first time!

Essa

Meet Essa, the louder half of the dynamic duo! She's not shy about her love for food—Essa will make sure you know when it's mealtime! Essa has a fun little quirk too: if you 'catch' her, she'll freeze in place, wide-eyed like she's playing tag.

She's playful, sweet, and loves to get along with other cats. With her big personality and a love for food, Essa is ready to bring lots of fun and affection to her new home!

Niki

Niki, the smallest of her feline trio, has grown into a sweet and affectionate kitty with a sleek black nose, a white tipped ear and a love for human attention.

Despite her petite size, she has a big heart, always seeking cuddles and playtime with her brothers or her favorite humans. Playful and loving, Niki's charm and gentle nature will make her the star of any household. Could that home be yours?

Don Don

Meet Don Don, or as we jokingly call her, Don Don Donki—cue the theme song! This miracle kitty has come a long way, surviving a tough start and making an amazing recovery.

Don Don is full of personality and isn't shy about showing it—she's a vocal girl who sometimes sounds like a monkey or makes adorable chattering noises. With her cheeky face and loving nature, she's always ready for affection and will happily soak up all the love you've got to give.

Penny

Penny was once a fierce feline force, known for her dramatic stomps and fierce hisses. Beneath that tough exterior, however, was a heart yearning for connection.

As time went on, Penny learned to trust and traded hisses for purrs. Now, she's a playful mix of sass and sweetness, always ready to curl up beside you for cozy cuddles—truly a lucky charm in every sense!

Peyton

Peyton was a wild spirit, known for his fierce stomps and hisses that could send anyone running. Slowly, his feral edge softened, transforming him into a loving companion who curls up beside you.

Now, he's a playful mix of sass and sweetness, always ready to settle into your lap for some quality snuggles with those brave enough to win his heart!

Eska

Eska may be the shyest of her litter, but don't let that fool you—she's got a heart full of love, especially for her siblings! Known as the playful one, she's always full of energy when it comes to toys.

While she's still a little shy when it comes to people, we suspect she secretly loves a good scratch or rub—she just needs a little time to warm up to you!

Clover

Meet Clover, the beautiful momcat with a cute small face and big, expressive eyes! Clover's gorgeous coat matches her equally lovely personality. She's a vocal kitty who loves asking for pats and attention, making sure she's always near her humans. Despite her playful side, Clover is also wonderfully chill and laid back. Adopt Clover, and your house will be filled with love, joy, and luck!

Eme

Say hi to Eme! She is a shy cat, mother to four cute black kittens. Eme is a gentle cat that loves to chill at her own spot! She could be a meowdel just from her looks!

Although she is on the shyer side, give Eme some time and watch her bloom into a confident kitty! Bring Eme home and prepare for lots of warmth and comfort.
