DAY 2 | Singapore Zoo

1

0900-1630: Getting up close with animals at the Singapore Zoo

How many of us can say that we've had breakfast with a bunch of orangutans! Kickstart the morning with breakfast at the Singapore Zoo where you'll get to dine in the presence of some very special guests. Be greeted at the table by elephants, orangutans and even snakes as they roam freely about.

Be sure to keep your cameras by your side because you wouldn't want to miss them strolling in hand in hand with their keepers.

After which, head on into the award winning park and get ready to get up close and personal with the rest of the wild life. The Singapore Zoo is famous its free open habitats where there are no cages for the animals. Instead they roam around freely in open enclosures and are separated from the public by moats or wooden fences.

Feed a giraffe, catch the elephant show or just take the tram around the park, stopping at each animal to get a closer look! Don't forget to head to the Fragile Forest where small animals like Ring Tailed Lemurs roam freely.

If you're looking for a place to grab some lunch, head over to Ah Meng's Kitchen for a plate of the iconically Singaporean dish, Chicken rice!

Check out our guide to the Singapore Zoo for more details about showtimes and other things to check out.

Getting there:

We'd suggest taking a shared transfer to the Singapore Zoo for the most convenient method of getting there. Don't forget to make sure your hotel is in the list of included hotels!

Address: 80 Mandai Lake Road Singapore 729826
Opening Hours: Daily 8.30am-6pm (last admission 5.30pm)

DAY 2 | Singapore Zoo

2

1635-1845 : Visit the River Safari!

Home to the world's largest freshwater aquarium, River Safari is definitely a place to check out. From the friendly Canola the Manatee to the most bizarre looking Alligator Gars, and of course, the most famous of the lot, the giant pandas Kai Kai and Jia Jia! Cruise along the Amazon River on the Amazon Quest and get ready to meet the amazing animals of the Amazon Rainforest.

If you're feeling peckish, be sure to head to Mama Panda's Kitchen for the cutest paos ever!

Getting there:

The River Safari and Night Safari are both within walking distance from the Singapore Zoo.

Opening hours: Daily: 7:00pm-12:00am (last admission 11:15pm) | Creatures of the Night Show: Daily at 7:15pm, 8:30pm and 9:30pm and also at 10:30pm on Friday, Saturday and eve of Public Holidays

1900-2200: See what animals get up to at night!

If you've ever wondered what the animals do after dark, now is your chance to find out! Visit the world's first ever nocturnal wildlife park, The Night Safari to take a peek at the lives of these nocturnal creatures. Hop aboard the tram and wander into the depths of the night as you discover fun facts about these nocturnal creatures and see them in action.

Catch these animals at the Creatures of the Night show and you just might be the lucky one that gets selected to go up on stage!

Located right at the entrance of the Night Safari is the Jungle Rotisserie. We'd suggest grabbing a seat outside and enjoying your dinner while catching the Thumbuakar fire twirling Performance!

DAY 2 | Singapore Zoo

4

2230 : Supper at Lau Pa Sat

After all that walking around the park, you would have worked up an appetite. Lucky for you, Singaporeans love to eat supper, which means most food establishments are still open at night!

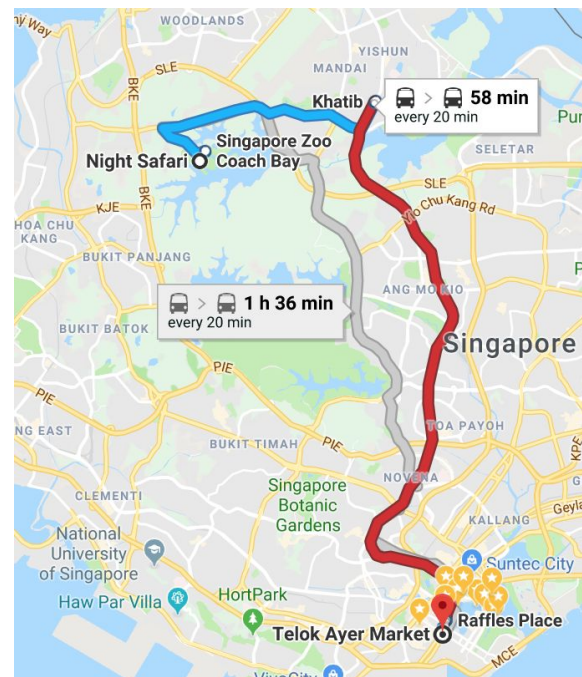

Fill your bellies with Sambal Stingray, Satay and some grilled seafood before resting up for the night at Lau Pa Sat!. Of course, don't forget to order a pint or two of the local Tiger Beer to wash down that grease.

Getting there:

Take the Mandai shuttle to Khatib station and take the North South line to Raffles Place (NS26). Lau Pa Sat is a short walk away.

Address: 18 Raffles Quay, Singapore 048582
