

CITY HAWKER food hunt

城市小販美食獎

SINGAPORE'S LONGEST RUNNING ISLANDWIDE
HAWKER FOOD CONTEST

Award Winners 2008 to 2018

2008:

THE INCEPTION OF CITY HAWKER FOOD HUNT

In a bid to show our appreciation to hawkers who have been working tirelessly to bring us our favourite local food, and to help preserve and promote our unique and rich hawker heritage, City Gas, Singapore's town gas provider, collaborated with Shin Min Daily News in 2008 on an islandwide hawker food hunt – City Hawker Food Hunt.

The first-of-its-kind here, City Hawker Food Hunt is easily identified by the Merlion mascot which fronts the campaign. Used with permission from the Singapore Tourism Board, the iconic Merlion mascot is the quintessential stamp of approval for stalls serving the best hawker food for its category in Singapore.

2009:

PARTICIPATION OF HEALTH PROMOTION BOARD AND NATIONAL ENVIRONMENT AGENCY

The Health Promotion Board (HPB) participated to encourage healthy eating habits at hawker centres, leading to the inception of the “Most Healthier Choice Hawker Centre” award.

The “Cleanest Hawker Centre” award was initiated with support from the National Environment Agency (NEA), giving due recognition to hawker centres which maintain a clean and hygienic environment.

The “Best Night Owl Hawker Centre” award was also introduced since Singaporeans enjoy having a delicious supper with family and friends.

2015:

PARTICIPATION OF NATIONAL HERITAGE BOARD AND CITY HAWKER FOOD GUIDE – SG50 EDITION

In celebration of our nation's golden jubilee, City Hawker Food Hunt collaborated with the National Heritage Board to produce this commemorative City Hawker Food Guide – SG50 Edition.

Keeping to the SG50 theme, a new award category, “Heritage Hawker Stall” was introduced to show appreciation to pioneer generation hawkers who have been serving good hawker fare for more than 50 years.

In addition, hawker parties were organised for the pioneer generation at Maxwell Food Centre and National Kidney Foundation patients at the new Ci Yuan Hawker Centre.
