1

Upon arrival: Lunch at The Witches Brew Restaurant

After your 3-hour drive from Bangkok to Khao Yai, you must be famished! Check out The Witches Brew Restaurant for lunch, located at Veneto Piazza.

Decked with witch-themed memorabilia, don't forget to snap some quirky photos while waiting for your food. The restaurant serves classic comforts like pizzas, local favourites and Western cuisine. You can wash your food down with a mug of ice cold beer!

Address: The Witches Brew Restaurant Khao Yai, 379/10 Veneto Piazza Thanarad Road, Moosi, Pak Chong
Opening Hours: Daily, 11am to 9pm | Closed on Tuesdays

2

1430-1600: Walk off your meal at the Palio Khao Yai

Located beside Veneto Piazza is Palio Village. Known for exuding an Italian charm, it's a colourful old town with narrow streets of small shops, cafes, restaurants, and stone bridges. There's an art gallery, wine cellars, a garden, bakery and a little maze in this quaint space!

With picture-perfect corners everywhere it's easy to see why so many couples come here for their wedding shots. There's certainly no need to fly to Europe for these picturesque scenes!

Address: 146/1 ม.4 Palio Khaoyai, ถ.ชนะรัชต์ กม.17, Tambon Mu Si, Amphoe Pak Chong, Nakhon Ratchasima 30130
Opening Hours: Sunday to Thursday, 9am to 7pm | Friday & Saturday, 8:30am to 8pm

3

1610-1800: Get acquainted with the furry friends of Primo Piazza

A short drive from Palio Village is Primo Piazza, a picturesque “Tuscan Village” affectionately known as the Little Italy of Thailand. The beautiful terracotta-toned buildings in Primo Piazza will easily win your heart over with stunning views and its architecture.

There’s a petting zoo where you can interact with the alpacas, sheep, donkeys, and friendly animals. Living up to its Italian charm, this village is also dotted with little cafes, cosy restaurants, souvenir shops and gelato stalls.

Address: 200/2 หมู่ 10 Mu Si, Pak Chong District, Nakhon Ratchasima 30130
Opening Hours: Daily, 9am to 6pm

4

1815-1930: Dinner at Midwinter Green

Midwinter Green would be the perfect place for date night if you’re looking to treat your better half like royalty for a night. Step into the castle grounds and get into the medieval mood as you walk past those brick walls.

We’d recommend getting their house specialty, the Midwinter pizza! Don’t be shocked when you get served because these delicious parcels don’t come served like your regular pizza but rather like Mexican Quesadillas.

Address: 88 88 หมู่ 10 ถนน ธนะรัชต์ Tambon Nong Nam Daeng, Amphoe Pak Chong, Chang Wat Nakhon Ratchasima 30130

Opening Hours: Daily, 10am to 10pm

5

1640-1800: Baan Suan Noi Resort (Hobbit House)

If you're a fan of the Lord of the Rings trilogy, relive the movie magic at the Hobbit House! Don on costumes from a time of the past and make believe as if you're a hobbit living in one of these tiny little houses. The attention to detail on these features really amazed us!

Even if you're not a fan of the movie, you'll can choose to dress up as Elsa from Frozen or even Harry Potter!

Address: 292, Lat Bua Khao, Sikhio District, Nakhon Ratchasima 30340

6

1840-2000: Dinner at Krua Nan Nam Restaurant

This humble Thai restaurant along the river is one of the local's favorites! Serving authentic Thai cuisine, some of the recommended dishes include steamed snakehead fish and their house speciality curry. With great food and great views of the river, what more could you ask for!

Address: 109/1, Mittaphap Road, Tambon Nong Sarai, Amphoe Pak Chong, Nakhon Ratchasima, 30130, Thailand

Opening Hours: Daily, 10am to 8pm

DAY 3 OVERVIEW

Time	Activity	How to get there
1000-1500	Get acquainted with nature at the Khao Yai National Park <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Haew Narok Waterfall- Pa Deo Die Cliff- Haew Suwat Waterfall	Khao Yai Custom Tour from Klook
1500-1800	Rest in hotel + nearby lunch
1800-2000	Dinner at Pak Chong Night Market

1

1000-1500: Spend a day in nature at the Khao Yai National Park

This UNESCO world heritage Khao Yai National Park with its refreshing scenic landscapes is a great breakaway from city life. The untouched jungles, waterfalls and mountain streams also make it ideal for spotting animals and exotic birds! Here are 3 of the top hiking and sightseeing spots in Khao Yai National Park:

Haew

Suwat

Waterfall

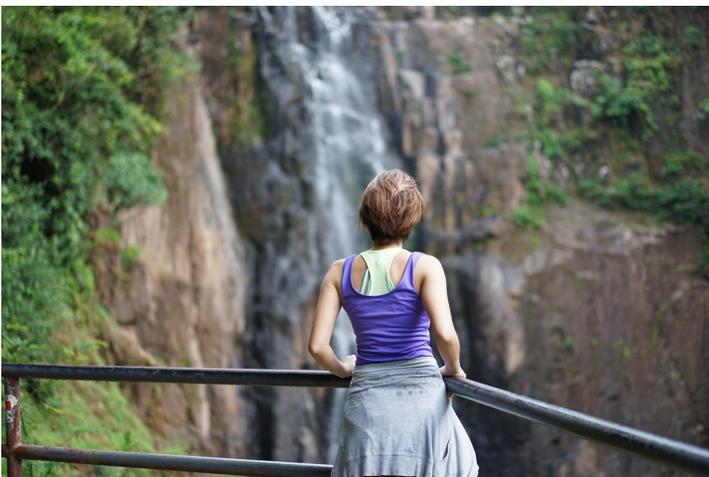

The Heaw Suwat Waterfall is a great place to take a dip after sweating it out on your trek around the park. As the cool water drops from the 20 meter cliff, be sure not to play in the pond on a rainy day because it can get pretty dangerous.

Pa Deo Die Cliff

Pa Deo Die Cliff

Arguably the most scenic point of the Khao Yai National Park, just a 15 minute walk from the Pak Chong Entrance will take you to Pa Deo Die Cliffs! Enjoy the panoramic views as you hang your legs over the edge in awe of Mother Nature's work.

Haew Narok Waterfall

Haew Narok Waterfall

Towering over us at a height of 150 meters, the Haew Narok Waterfall is Khao Yai National Park's most impressive waterfall! While you'll definitely have to conquer a healthy flight of steps to get to the falls, the majestic views are surely worth it.

Address: Tambon Hin Tung, Amphoe Mueang Nakhon Nayok, Chang Wat Nakhon Nayok 26000

2

1800-2000: Dinner at Pak Chong Night Market

After hiking and exploring at the national park, take a few hours to rest at the hotel. When the hunger starts making its presence known, then make your way to Pak Chong Night Market!

A must to visit a local night market whenever you're in Thailand, the Pak Chong Night Market has all the local favourites you'd want!

From mango sticky rice to Yum Mama (instant noodle salad), grilled skewers, and trendy food like chili cheese fries, you're bound to find something you like. The best part of all, they're all pretty affordable so you can buy for and try different street food items without breaking the bank!

Address: 2422 Tambon Pak Chong, Amphoe Pak Chong, Chang Wat Nakhon Ratchasima 30130

Opening Hours: Daily, 5pm to 9:30pm

DAY 4 OVERVIEW
