1030-1530: Spend a full day with the elephants!

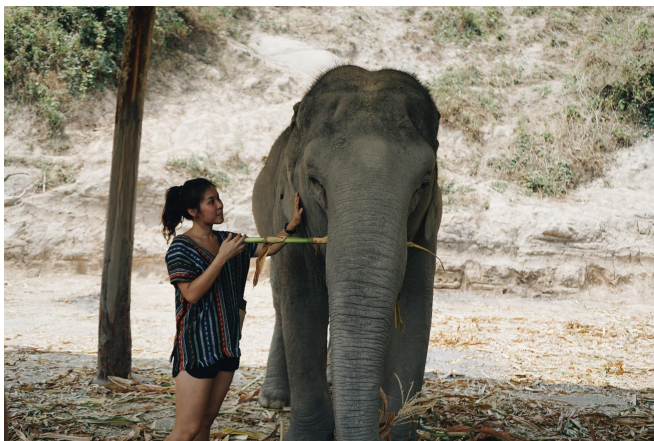

One of the most unique experiences you'll have in Chiang Mai is getting to play with the elephants! Forget unethical camps where elephants are forced to put on performances for you. Instead, spend a day with these rehabilitated elephants at the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary!

Start off by getting to know the elephants and the best way to do this is with treats! Say "bon bon" which means up and watch them raise their trunks. You can then proceed to place a sugar cane on their trunks or into their mouths!

Afterwhich, you'll have lunch (provided) as well as make some treats for them by mashing rice and bananas. They will then line up for their health check where you'll get to inspect their bodies for bites and scratches.

You'll also be given brushes and hoses to scrub them clean. Head in to the mud after that and grab a handful to rub on their bodies!

Finally, wash off the mud and splash buckets of water on these gentle giants in the river. It truly takes a village to raise an elephant.

2

1700-1800: Unwind at the Let's Relax Spas

After a long day out and about with the playful elephants, unwind with a relaxing massage at the Let's Relax Spa!

The masseurs are extremely skilled at releasing all the tension in your muscles. After the treatment ends, you'll even get a free plate of Mango Sticky Rice!

The White Temple is probably the most famous of them, with insanely intricate details but with a modern twist. You'll find motifs of modern day icons like the Minions and the Avengers around the temple!

The Blue Temple, also known as the House of Dancing Tigers draws huge crowds daily for the beautiful carvings and the giant white Buddha in the main hall.

Lastly, the eerie yet serene Black House blends traditional Thai architecture with art displays. Home to creator Duchenne's extensive collection of weird taxidermy and bones, this might make you feel slightly uneasy.

Start off with a walk on the Angkha trail and take in the beautiful mountain air. It can be pretty chilly up there so be sure to pack a light jacket!

Afterwhich, head to the Royal Twin Pagodas where you can stroll through the beautiful Queen pagoda gardens!

P.S. There are escalators up!

Head to the Vachiratharn Waterfall next and experience the gush of the majestic falls. We wouldn't recommend heading all the way down because it can be pretty slippery!

Lastly, the Royal Agricultural project is the place to pick up last minute souvenirs! You'll find plenty of local organic produce.

You can then request for the driver to drop you off at the airport for your flight back home!
